Form 990 (2024)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Fine arts classes and camps for children - Seaside Arts Center is dedicated to providing equitable fine arts education to children in the San Diego community. Our approach helps students develop their own, unique voice within their art refine their individual style and enhance their confidence, compassion, and creativity. Through this method, students not only produce exceptional work, but because of their personal stake in the product, they are empowered to speak with conviction and confidence about this work. Our robust scholarship program ensures that these opportunities are afforded to any child who wants them, regardless of means and circumstance. On site, in Carmel Valley, San Diego, we have classes in theater, dance, visual arts, and more. We also partner with organizations throughout the San Diego community to provide this same high caliber arts education to children who would otherwise have little to no exposure to the arts.
